“ Henry taught the Gospel with the fervor of a man who had lived it his whole life.

Some of the most alive lessons wove stories from the Gospel with reflections of his Own life from before the war in Europe , it was amazing. He had this gift of teaching with clarity and humanity.

The Lord gave him this.

I will so greatly miss his light in this world, he was a tru gift to those of us who knew him. He truly now is with his Lord.

“ I first met Henry when we built our home in Cold Spring Harbor. Henry ran the water service to our home and the new house next to ours. I found Henry to be one the local Gideons, and a friend of Walter Lesawich. Henry never swayed from his convictions and took a loving stand for Jesus and salvation through Jesus as your personal savior. I will remember Henry for his devotion to Christ and his family.

“ Dear Lois, Andrew, Nancy and family, Our hearts are so full for you all right now. Henry was a "one of a kind" and will be so missed, but so well received in Heaven.

We love you all.

“ Dear Lois,

Henry was a wonderful man. He was so gracious and kind. Just being by Henry you were drawn within. To be able to sit in a room with him and listen to his profound wisdom and belief was overwhelming. I was blessed to have shared in closeness within my heart as well as his presence. Susan
