“ Dear Uncle Jack, I hope that you are at peace with Nana, Pop-Pop, Kitty Margie and Joe, and of course Kevin. I remember fun family times as a kid visiting Nana and Pop-Pop and having your growing family of kids arrive to play on the farm field on Fifth Ave South. We also had some good times at your Montana Place home. We didn't get together as the kids got older and had their own families. It is good to see my cousins and catch up when we run into each other around town. My Mom Margie, loved you and I know she was holding out her hand when she saw you again. You were always her little brother.
