“ To Jim's Family,

I wish you much comfort and peace at this time. I was fortunate to cross paths with Jim during my early years at Liberty Mutual. He was passionate about what he did, yet always ensured he considered the influence he had others and acted accordingly. He made a positive impact on many during his long and distinguished career.

Sincerely,

“ While I never had the pleasure of meeting Jim face-to-face, being his travel agent and friend these past 6 years or so I always enjoyed my conversations with Jim... both in the planning stages and then after his trips I would look forward to his calls so we could critique and laugh. I was able to meet so many of his family and friends as it seemed "to love Jim was to travel with Jim"... where he went many wanted to go along as well. A true sign of a good, kind and caring person. I will miss Jim but I know as I go on my travels hopefully he will tag along. Suzanne “ Remembering Jim's love of family, friends, and a life filled with humor, hard work, and adventure. He knew how to celebrate life's simple joys, appreciated the gifts he received, and lived every minute to the fullest. He will be missed by so many. May he rest peacefully with the Lord. My deepest condolences to his family and many dear friends.

With fond memories
