“ Jim left us too soon but he enjoyed every day.

We wish we knew more people like him.

We will miss the conversations, the caring about everything we said or did, the friendship, the smell of BBQ or smoked meats in the air, the yelling across the street (in a nice way), the sound of his diesel pickup leaving to go to work early in the mornings (even weekends), the stories about his children and grandchildren and other friends and family, and most especially the laughter.

We will truly miss this gentleman! RIP

“ My deepest condolences to all at this difficult time.

Jimmy was a wonderful man who was filled with so much love and gratitude.

Always wearing a big smile with a willingness to engage with others, he will always be remembered!

One day long ago, he drove to Instant Verticals and parked his payloader outside the door -- only the huge tires were visible through the glass! -- this always brings a smile. He was working but wanted to visit his brothers, John and Steve, so in he drove...

May your wonderful memories bring you some comfort.

You're all in my thoughts and prayers.

God Bless, Eileen Schulze
