“ I was so shocked to hear of Janice's passing. She was the all-natural Ivory girl, in my eyes. She led a healthy life & ran marathons. In her 60's, she could be seen water-skiing on Lake Champlain. Janice loved life so much and found beauty in the ordinary things. I know she loved Camp Rich in VT and camp will not be the same without her. My sincerest condolences to her soulmate (Tom), her children (Pat, Dale, Michael & Tammy) and her brothers (Paul, Don & Doug). Rest in Peace, dear Janice and say hello to Gladys, Charlie & your folks for me.

Just found out yesterday. I always saw her and Tom every year at the Summer run series and years ago playing Coed soccer with her and Charlie . A lovely person.
