“ Jarrett and I were best friends ever since Birchwood Elementary school, and we would hang out every single day whether it was my house or his. I always preferred going to his because he had the coolest dog ever Jake and a backyard to die for. I have thousands of memories but now that I think about one it was so cute. Jarrett and Britney started taking tap dance lessons and remember all they wanted to do was get home and put those tap dance shoes on and go crazy. Thing was they weren't allowed to do it inside cause they would scratch up all the beautiful wooden floors. They got pretty innovative and saw that the upstairs closet had wood flooring in there so him and Brit would push all the clothes out of the way then push each other out of the way and then just have a blast lol. All the years with Jarrett were a blessing to me, he was and will always be a very special person and would just help anyone he could and do it with a smile on his face always. He will always hold a special place in my heart and so will his family. I love him very much and know that God must need him right now but I know he is looking down on us all smiling and will be there waiting. RIP my brother I love you.
