“ I found this page because I was just thinking about college, and Jay...remembering the time I was having a hard time and I asked him where he was-I needed a friend. He was with a girl and still let me come over and cry to him (and the female). Always a big heart. I'm clean and sober and I hope someone reading this joins me in getting clean. My heart cries for his parents and sister. I'm sorry the disease took him.

“ Jason was my HS boyfriend and was always the sweetest to me. He was funny, caring, and had a big heart and so much love for his friends. I am so sorry. You are in my thoughts and heart. Tris

“ By the time I get out of this meeting onto a train and arrive in Huntington the viewing will have concluded. I was about to send flowers, but I felt you laughing at me as I attempted to pick out a cheesy Bouquet online. You were always having fun and making people laugh, I can't remember you mad at anything. Sending prayers to your loved ones, family and friends. Rest my friend, rest.
