

Jeff Armstrong

July 20, 1956 - February 8, 2026

Jeffrey "Jeff" Allan Armstrong, 69, of Cape Coral, Florida, passed away on Sunday, February 8, 2026, in Port Charlotte. He was born on July 20, 1956, in Brooklyn, New York.

Jeffrey was a man of the Baptist faith whose life was defined by service, dedication, and deep love for the people and passions that shaped his world. He proudly served as a captain with NYC EMS, responding with courage and commitment during the events of 9/11-an experience that marked him and those who served alongside him.

A resident of Cape Coral for the past 20 years after relocating from New York, Jeff embraced the Florida lifestyle while keeping his New York roots close to heart. He loved good food, cooking for those he cared about, getting lost in a good book, listening to jazz, and spending time with the dogs he adored. He was also a devoted Star Trek fan, finding joy in its stories of exploration and hope, and he had a deep appreciation for history, always eager to learn, reflect, and share what he discovered.

On October 19, 1996, Jeff married the love of his life, Doris. Together they built a family grounded in love, humor, and unwavering support. He is survived by his devoted wife, Doris Armstrong; his daughters, Briana Armstrong and Alisia Armstrong (Louis Rodriguez); his son, Thomas Armstrong; his brother, Claude Armstrong (Laura); and his many cherished fur babies, who brought him endless joy.

Jeff was preceded in death by his parents, Irving and Marjorie Armstrong.

“ Jeff arrived at Metropolitan Hospital, wide-eyed and eager to learn. We did something together which we could not do today, and probably would be fired for, but it was the right thing to do for the patient. Passed a few messages here and there, but boy, do I miss his smile. Condolences to the family and friends.

I will Always think of the kind and loving spirit of Jeff Armstrong! I moved to Fort Myers in June of 2018 and secured a job at Enterprise rent a car. I was in pretty bad shape but was determined to rebuild My life. I was a greeter with Jeff in the parking garage and living week to week in a motel! The food he would prepare for Me was marvelous! On St.Patrick's day, 2019 he brought Me wonderful Corn Beef and cabbage! I am saddened by his passing and I am praying for Doris and his family! Jeff, you are the definition of a good Christian servant Randall T Sundeen!
