“ I am shocked to hear tha Jeff has passed. We first met each other working together at Bank of America in Carle Place. As a wet behind the ears 20 year old kid, Jeff had endless pages of wisdom to be give. He showed me the ropes, and opened many avenues for me. I'll miss his smile, laughter and conversations. Condolences to his family.

“ My husband and I were shocked to hear of Jeff's passing. Jeff had been our financial advisor for more than 40 years. We followed him through several bank changes. He helped us with buying our first house and then with retirement many years later. He was a kind, trustworthy and compassionate person. So sorry for his family and their tremendous loss. He will be missed and touched our lives especially.

“ I just tried to call Jeff this morning went on the internet and found this. I am shocked and in tears. My husband and I offer our sincere condolences to his family. We have been clients but most of all considered him our friend. We will miss our catching up conversations , his honesty and his financial guidance. Rest in Peace, Jeff. You are missed!

“ I am only just hearing today about Jeff passing. I am in shock. Tears streaming down my face. My mom had accounts with him (she died this month 6 years ago) and loved his truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, caring, understanding and knowledge. He was an amazing human. I myself moved accounts over to him due to my Mom and Dad's trust in him. Spoke to him Nov 5th, 2024, and mentioned I was going to London. He told me his wife had just been there on business and we gabbed and as usual he was wonderful. Had I known I'd have been to the wake and funeral. I am so very sorry to hear this and will send along a mass card to the family. So very sorry. I am in shock.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I am extremely sad to hear of Jeff's passing. Jeff and I worked together for years at Wells Fargo. We spoke almost every day. He shared his love for his family and how proud of his children he was. He will be truly missed. All the family are in my prayers. Angel Allen - Charlotte, NC
