

Joan D. Zimmermann

June 20, 1933 - May 21, 2017

Joan Dorothy Zimmermann passed away May 21, 2017 in the home she built with her late husband Edwin surrounded by her family.

She was an extraordinary woman who throughout her life opened her heart and home to any child in need. Her life can be perfectly captured with a quote from her favorite movie The Wizard of Oz: “A Heart is not judged by how much you love, but by how many others loved you.”

Her immeasurable love will live on through her children: James (Stacy), John (Judy), Thomas, Richard (Ann Marie), and Donna; her grandchildren: Adam (Toni), Blathana, and Erin; her siblings: Virginia, Michael, and Daniel; and everyone she shared her heart with. She was preceded in death by her husband Edwin, and brother John and wife Marietta.
