“ What can I say...so many memories, especially since we grew up together and lived around the block from one another. So I will share a couple...

Watching the Crawling Eye at your parent's house with your siblings when the Lamberta clan got together to play cards. We all huddled together as of course this was a scary movie! Breaking the branch on Mr. Brown's tree (not on purpose and that was our secret). Your heroic measures as you tried to find the mouse in your basement after finding Aunt Hetsy on a table (ran when she had seen the mouse and jumped on table). Your crazy spider monkey, who escaped! Our WWHS adventures in detention...we set the tone for Gary, Cindy, and Pammy who were to follow...sorry cousins. As adults (I use the term loosely), and especially the past few years, our phone conversations that took us from childhood to retirement. Johnny thanks so much for being a great friend and confidant. You were always there through the good times and bad...always listening, supportive, and most important caring...you are a special person, one who always gave and never expected anything in return. I will miss you Johnny Boy, but I know you are free of pain and at peace...Love, your cousin Gail
