

John Niebling

November 7, 1946 - June 12, 2012

Of East Northport, 65, loving husband of Karen, cherished father of Melissa and John, dedicated grandfather of two, dear brother of Donald. Proud U.S. Navy veteran.

Tribute Wall

“ John Niebling

November 27, 2022 at 05:33 PM

“ John Niebling

Patrick collins - May 10, 2013 at 09:24 AM

“ To Aunt Karen - Melissa - "Little" John - Christina - John Jr & Sophia - We are so deeply saddened for your loss and for our loss - Uncle John was an INCREDIBLY AWESOME man - He no doubt was so proud of you all - He was so Blessed to have such a loving & supportive family - In our house he was loved and revered and will never be forgotten - Praying for you all that this empty space that Unlce John has left behind will be filled with Love - Peace and Mercy

for all the days of your lives - Praying that memories will help comfort you - We Love you all

Tom- Jen- Larry- Danny

Jennifer Niebling - June 15, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MM

“ Dear Mrs. Niebling & family,

Just sending my deepest sorrow to you and your family in these difficult times. It's so sad to lose someone that is loved so much by all but at least now he will suffer no longer. I don't know your family that well but what I do know of you all is that you all were very kind always. John was such a pleasant fellow and always had a big smile even with suffering with his pain. GOD REST HIS SOUL.

Love Always,

Michael, Robin & Anthony Mupo

Michael, Robin & Anthony Mupo - June 15, 2012 at 12:00 AM

CJ

“ To Karen, Melissa, John and family - I've worked with John for several years. He had a very upbeat personality - always smiling. He was a kind, caring and gentle man who adored his family. John shared many photos of his two grandchildren, Sofia and John, and the precious stories about them. He told me about the wonderful traveling Melissa was doing. I'd ask John - "where is she this time?" John loved his family with the deepest devotion. He is now at peace. God Bless the Niebling family during your time of sorrow. John will be missed.

Sincerely,

Cam Jambor

Cam Jambor - June 14, 2012 at 12:00 AM