“ John, Thank You for all your kindness! You truly are a gentle gentleman - in every sense of the words! You, your laughter, your inspiring words, your enthusiasm (especially for your "upstate home", your retreat!). Through your eyes and words you treated all you knew you to a wonderful vision of life! Yes! You had, like all of us, experiences that you would have preferred NOT to go through - but THOSE experiences made you the "guiding light" that you are! These words are repeated over and over by all who knew you - in particular, Stan S! You are in heaven now, all toils of this life put away, and we ask that you pray for us - those still waiting for the time when "Our dream ship, frail or staunch, right nailed to it's leaning mast with mighty stars of hammered gold, has sailed to another shore!"
John, THANK YOU for being that VERY SPECIAL person that you are!
To our Absent Brother!

“ It will not be the same without you John, up at the lake. We will miss all the good times we had on the deck. Most of all, we will miss our friend John.
