“ I was so shocked when I received the phone call from Rocco in hearing about Joe's passing. He was my inside contact at KC Electronics. He brought so much joy to my day when we would talk. The last time we spoke was about a week and half ago. I thanked him for the Godiva chocolates that he had sent MAC for Christmas and about the Opera. I told him I hated the opera but he said that if I would see it in person, I would love it. I wish I could have had the opportunity to meet him. I can still hear his soft voice as he always made me laugh. My thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time of sorrow. He will truly be missed.

“ Dear Maura

Our deepest sympathies on Joe's passing. We had known Joe & done business with him for 18 years & he was a wonderful & generous man with a great sense of humor.

“ Maura,

Joe was very dear to our family. EVERYDAY he had friendly thoughts to share. He ALWAYS had a smile on. I will miss that very much. "The twins" always had sooooo much fun with him and his toys. He was kind and one of a kind.

This is a profound loss for everyone who had the privilege of knowing what a special man he was. You are just as dear to us and are in our hearts.

Much love,

Jennifer

“ Dear Maura,

I am completely shocked! I work at Metro-North, and I spoke with Joe all the time for business purposes. Not only did we discuss business, but Joe would always share about his dogs, and just life in general. He was such a wonderful person and I will truly miss him. I pray that the Lord will continue to comfort you and envelop you with His love.

Sending Sincerest Condolences,

“ Maura,

A beautiful light went out in your world the day you lost Joseph. He had a kind heart and soul and will be missed by all who knew him. Joseph's dedication and selfless nature is something that many others could only hope to attain. All who knew him regarded him with great respect and admiration. Joseph was one of those people who was like a breath of fresh air. His infectious smile and warm personality made him one of those special people that it was a joy to be around.

The loss of a loved one is never easy, even when anticipated; it is most certainly the hardest when they are taken too soon. Your recent loss of Joseph is certainly in the category of those hard losses for which there is so painful a reminder of what might have been. Words alone cannot express my sympathy on the untimely death of your beloved friend, companion and husband. To say that his time with us was far too short is an understatement. The reality is that he will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

No doubt the outpouring of sympathy you have received since his parting has been of some consolation. Hopefully it will serve as a reminder to you of how well-loved and liked Joseph was. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers and the comfort in knowing that your loss is felt by many, help you through this difficult time.

In thinking about your loss, I would like to leave you with the oft quoted words of an observer at Abraham Lincoln's deathbed who said upon his passing, "Now he belongs to the angels

I hope that in some small measure these words bring you some comfort at this sad time.

“ Dear Maura,

I feel so badly and I know words cannot ease your grief at the loss of your beloved Joseph, but please know you have the prayers of so many with you at this time. Joseph is, I know, surrounded by loving Settlers, smiling and happy in their company-it is those he left behind that must cope with the pain of missing him. Your world has forever changed, but if you allow, the many friends you have will be there for you and I pray you will lean on them for support.

My heart is with you...

“ Dear Maura:

Please know how sorry I am that Joseph has left us. His smile lit up the room and I was always so grateful for his help at shows.

My thoughts are with you.

“ Maura,

So sad to learn of the passing of Joe. We have some fond memories of working with him over the years. His infectious laugh & smile will never be forgotten. He loved you & the dogs with all his heart. You lost a soulmate, & the electronics industry lost a fine salesman. Sending a hug and prayers to ease your pain.

“ Joseph will be truly missed and always remembered as a sweet, kind gentle man. He adored his setters and always took time to speak to anyone who asked about them. He was there to lend a hand whomever asked him to. Joseph, I will miss you.

“ Joseph I miss your smile and your sanity already.

Maura, compared to your grief, my sympathy feels like nothing right now, even though I, like all of your friends, am baffled, distraught, looking for logic and answers and reason where there is none.

Lean on us now Maura. We want to help and feel helpless too.

Love,

“ Maura,

I so wish I could be there with you right now to try and help you through the loss of Joseph. I will really miss his joking with me when he would answer the phone when I called you, or when you made him talk to me when you were busy & could'nt come to the phone right away. He so "loved" that, but he did it anyway.

Let your friends be there for you now, you will need them.
