“ I’m so sorry to hear of Joe’s passing. I had hoped that some day we would be able to talk and catch up on how our lives turned out, but I didn’t know how to get in touch with him. I am happy to see he had a beautiful family and I’m so sorry for your loss. I knew Joe in college and when he first joined the NYPD. I’m proud of him for all he accomplished and I wish for him eternal peace. Liz Trasciatti (Braga)

“ Thank you to everyone who sent a note or thoughts or flowers, or attended the wake or the mass and the post-celebrations at the Shamrock. It was great to see people from all over the country and from all the different phases of Joe’s life come together and share stories & memories. Long Island, the fishing community, St. Anthony’s, Merrimack, Hockey & Lacrosse, NYPD, Myrtle Beach/ Murrells inlet, and Mary’s Family. Thank you to especially to James for organizing and pulling together such a grand affair.

“ I was nervous meeting my freshmen roommate at Merrimack College. Little did I know what I was in for. Within 2 hours I already felt like I knew Joe for years. He was a great athlete, a great fraternity brother, and the greatest of friends. He lit up every room and party we ever attended. He really helped take my “twisted personality” to a new level. You may be gone but your memories will last forever. My sadness and condolences go out to the family. RIP brother Anthony Scricca

Met Joe the first week of college as Freshmen at Merrimack in 1985. He kept everyone LAUGHING OUT LOUD each and every day. Gut wrenching laughing. What a TALENT he had for bringing a smile to everyone's face.

Certain he's the headliner entertaining all the angels.

Rest in Peace, Joe.

My deepest sympathies to all of Joe's family. He was an unforgettable guy. We met the first week of our freshman year at college and proceeded to have a blast for the next four. Not a week has gone by since that I don't find myself cracking up remembering the times we shared.

Rest in peace my friend,

Bob Guarino

My condolences to all of Joe's family. I met Joe upon arrival at Merrimack College. Funny, friendly, & always ready for a good time. Came to Cape Cod to visit a few of us way back & made it memorable. Always enjoyed my time with him. Billy Dwyer

To all of Joe's family, may happy memories replace the sadness in your heart some day soon. Joe was one of a kind, and I am sure they broke the mold when he was born. I've never met such an all around great person. He certainly made my days at Merrimack fun and unforgettable. You will always be missed. Rest in peace Joe.

My family moved two houses down from the Schneider family in 1974. I was 4 years old. The first kid I met was Joe who was a few years older than me but the youngest of four brothers. And after "duking it out" a few times as he did with his older brothers and to test the new kid on the block, I guess I passed the test because we became inseparable friends as young boys do. I looked up to Joe as my older brother and he had a huge impact on my life. The memories, adventures and the laughs we had growing up and living together before we both moved on to get married are countless and will be cherished forever. I'm in tears and disbelief writing in his obituary because of how early he passed on. I always thought Joe was indestructible and would live a very long life. Words cannot describe the emptiness and sadness I feel over his loss. After fighting the good fight....wishing you peace and love my brother....peace and love with all of our dear friends and family that have passed on and in a much better place. I will never forget you. I love you man.

Your friend,

Victor
