February 18, 1929 - October 13, 2011

Jahrsdoerfer , Katherine Mary Clare (nee McCarthy) died peacefully on October 13, 2011 in Huntington Station, NY. Kathy was born in Astoria and attended Dominican Commercial High School. She was working at the Bank of New York when she met her husband, James.

They married in 1950 and moved to Huntington a few years later where they raised their family. Her passion for sailing was born there and they spent many happy summers sailing the East Coast. In the late 1970's they purchased a home on Shelter Island where they spent 32 happy years. Kathy loved Shelter Island, was active in the Garden Club and volunteered annually at the 10K Run.

Kathy is survived by Jim, her beloved husband of 61 years; her children, Stephen (Karen) of Fort Wayne, Indiana, James of Port Jefferson, Barbara Bozzone (Steven) of Huntington Station, Brian (Cecile) of Houston, Texas and the late Matthew (Melanie); and her sister Peggy Mach (Stanley) of Riverhead. She was a loving grandmother of ten and great grandmother of nine.

Kathy embraced life with both arms for everything it had to offer. Her gift to us was a lifetime of love and all its memories. She will be remembered and honored in our hearts, our memories and the legacy of her family.
