

Kathleen Arocho

September 29, 1946 - February 11, 2026

Kathleen (Kathy) Arocho was born in Greenpoint, Brooklyn, to John and Catherine Foley. The second of five children, she grew up alongside her beloved siblings, Loretta Martinez, John Foley, Robert Foley and Mary Foley and a close circle of cousins. She lost her brother, John (Johnny) at a young age due to vehicle accident and her baby sister, Mary due to a pulmonary development issue. She later moved to Farmingdale, NY, where she spent her high school years.

Kathy met the love of her life, her husband Julie "Tito" Arocho, and together they built a home in Huntington Station, raising five children: Mark (Michelle), Nancy, David, Julio (Mariela), and Alaina (David).

Kathy was predeceased by her husband, Tito; brother, Johnny; baby sister, Mary and her parents.

She was a beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother and nana.

Known for her generous spirit, Kathy always put others before herself. She remained deeply rooted in her Catholic faith and faced life's challenges with grace, strength, and quiet resilience.

She will be dearly missed by her family and all who loved her.

“Love does not end; it changes form, becoming the light that helps us carry on.”
