

Keith Michael Banks Jr.

September 18, 1980 - November 25, 2021

Keith Michael Banks Jr.

Sunrise : September 18, 1980 ~ Sunset : November 25, 2021

It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep.

“ Lil Keith, we may not have always seen eye to eye about things, but we were ALWAYS understanding and loved one other. You will be missed and I will always carry you in my heart. To lose both my mother and father and then you within the same year, it breaks my heart even more. I love you so much, Sleep In Peace. I know you will be watching over all of us. 🙏💜🦋

“ Our deepest condolences to the Banks family. My husband and I shall never forget Keith's honorable service to his country and the love he gave his children, his family, and his friends. He was one of the kindest and warmest men we have ever ever met. To lose him so early in life is utterly heartbreaking. I salute everything he achieved and what he believed in. Our sympathy for your loss. Keith will forever be in our hearts.

“ My condolences and my thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Banks was a good friend of mine. He was one of the first people I met when I got stationed in VA. We had some great times in the Navy. I remember when he brought me to New York with him and I got to meet some of his family and friends. Banks you will forever be in our thoughts and minds rest easy my boy. Your shipmate Duck

“ To all who know him, he is my Baby Boy. Loved by everyone, friend to most. He will be greatly missed to all and i don't know how to say how much i will miss my son. This is a hurt that will never end. I lost my Mother and my Father and now i have lost my son, i can't take no more pain in my life right now. I sit sit here with tears in my eyes not knowing how to cry right now because the hurt is so bad. I will miss you my son and i will try to be brave with this. With pain comes strength, Love you forever and forever in my heart. Love Dad.....

“ Sorry for your loss of Keith, to the Banks family & to his kids & anyone else who loved him. I sat with him, my senior year of h.s. at the lunch table, with his sister. I just read a post of his 6 months ago how he loss all these family members & now surprisingly he's gone too. I don't know how he passed, but life is unfair & strange. May his memories be there with you for a lifetime. So sorry. -Sherry
