

Lawrence M. Famighette

February 24, 1958 - December 19, 2022

Lawrence M. Famighette, 64, of Melville, NY passed on December 19th, 2022. He is survived by his loving wife, Deborah, of 42 years, and his wonderful children Larry, Victor, and Lauren. Larry is also survived by his youngest brother Domenic, his grandchildren Vivienne and Lorenzo, his cousins, the children of Carol, Patricia, and Sally, his dearest family friends in the world, John Gormley and Bob & Joann Lancaster, and many other family members and friends. He is predeceased by his mom Barbara, his father Lawrence, his middle brother Matthew, his aunts Carol and Sally, his uncles Danny and Frank, along with members of the Matinale, Garaffa, and Norris families, dear family friend Robert Lancaster, and many friends. Larry was definitely welcomed with open arms by them when he reached heaven on Monday afternoon and reunited with his dog Eddie. Something tells his family heaven just got the best chef and the party is just about to start up there. His friends and relatives up there are all about to have the best Christmas Eve Dinner.

Larry was born in Brooklyn, NY on February, 24th, 1958 and raised by his parents, aunts, and grandmother. He was the oldest of his siblings and cousins who he adored and loved greatly. He ran a coffee truck business for many years and married his beautiful wife on May 3rd, 1980. His favorite job in the entire world was being a father. He was the husband and dad who cooked you a gourmet lunch (eggplant parmigiana) to go to work or school with. Larry was a Giants and Bills fan. Larry's interests included spending time with his family and friends, cooking, crabbing at Lindenhurst docks, fixing things, doing the daily newspaper maze, making fresh homemade tomato sauce every Sunday, and listening to music as well as attending concerts and shows (more cowbell).

Larry was an extremely kind, loyal, down-to-earth guy who was funny, had a quick sense of humor, was always willing to help, and always showed up for you. He truly cared about all his family. Larry was an awesome husband, father, son, brother, cousin, and friend. Life had its ups and downs for Larry with his multiple health issues due to diabetes, congestive heart failure, and end-stage renal failure, but he always persevered. He put up a good fight until the very end and showed the true meaning of what it means to never give up. He will be truly missed by all who loved and knew him, but his family hopes he finally is no longer suffering and can rest easy.

Visitation for Larry at the funeral home will take place on Wednesday, 12/28/2022 from 4 - 8 PM.

“ Larry you will always be remembered for the amazing, funny, kindhearted person you were. I have so many memories some shareable, some not, but you and I always had a special bond. You fought the battle with grace and dignity and hopefully you can finally RIP. Take care of my baby boy, we will love you forever.

“ Having been best friends with Victor since Kindergarten, I've partly grown up in the Famighette household and with their family. I have spent countless hours at their kitchen table talking music, guitars, cars, sports, politics, life in general and sharing more laughs and good meals than I can even remember. Larry always treated me like another son and his presence in my life was never taken for granted. I will miss him dearly and his senses of humor. He was a humble man with a big heart. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Anyone who called Larry a friend was a very lucky person. He was genuine and real. No pretense, no airs, just Larry Famighetti. I met him when I was in 6th grade when he moved to the neighborhood. I was 11 and now 64, a friendship for over 50 years. Many memories of a “Cool” guy who was so easy to talk to. I will cherish the good times spent with him. I will miss him. Rest in peace my Dear Friend “ Losing a parent is definitely one of the hardest parts of life. However I wouldn't trade the relationship I have with my dad for anything. He was always there and always offered his children the world. Some of the best memories are going to work with him on his coffee truck and going to concerts. My dad has taken the well deserved Stairway To Heaven and the love he shared will make his memory live on for ever. I love you dad!

“ I remember being in the Sixth grade Miss Grimes' class and seeing Larry for the first time he was so cool a new kid at Taukomas JoAnn and I and Bob Leitch became a foursome that poor Miss Grimes' had to put up with that whole school year. From that point on I had a friend for life One of the sweetest funniest loyal persons one could know. He was a man in every sense of the word but also felt like a best girlfriend in that we could talk for hours about anything. So glad he found his beautiful soulmate in Deborah and that he was blessed with his beautiful children. He will be missed in this world by many! RIP my beautiful lifelong friend!
