“ How can you choose one memory from a lifetime of beautiful memories; so many years as a child celebrating Christmas, Easter, Birthdays, BBQs, and as I grew older, those days with the pool table, dart board and sloe gin fizzes (who even knew what those were?!). The bond we formed is hard to describe and in the void she's left in my heart, I am blessed with one clear and pure memory, which sums up a lifetime of love and joy, when last December we hugged each other, kissed and as I held her face in my hands we looked into each others eyes, smiling and said goodbye..... I love you so much Aunt Lil.....

“ To the Meyers family,

David, you were so devoted to her care and comfort, I commend you...we all are learning how difficult this journey can be.

May you all find comfort that Mrs Meyers is now at peace.

Respectfully,

Janet Speed and Richard Petrino
