“ What can I say about Lillian? Or as I called her, Grandma? She was amazing. She was so fierce. And so kind. She called me almost every day when I lived in Los Angeles and checked with me on what time it was because time zones are confusing! She made sure I didn't drink too much liquid when I was eating over her house and focused on food. She always wanted to make sure I was sitting like a lady. I feel so so lucky that I had her looking out for me for all those years and then my kids got to meet her too, including my daughter Lily, who I named for her. We are all very lucky to have even spent a part of her amazing 101 years with her. - Krissy (grandkid #4)
