Daddy Louis You No Kory From North Carolina Who in this photo

luna lattanzi - November 15, 2020 at 05:25 PM

SL

“ As I try to think of something profound or deep to write all I can think of is how much it hurts that you're gone. I can't believe I will never hear you laugh, listen to the outrageous things that would come out of your mouth, or see your eyes crinkle with mischief. I remember your joy when Luna and Enola were born. All you wanted was to have kids and be a good father. Your time was too short with them, but I know that even though they will forever miss you, they will always remember your love for them.

I also will never forget you; not only do I have my memories, but I will always have reminders of you in Katrina when she tells stories of things she read or heard about and her passion for debating her opinions, or in Jade when she's cracking me up with her antics or her sarcastic sense of humor, and of course her love for the most interesting food combinations. Even in my granddaughter, Aria Rose, whose priceless facial expressions and smile is a constant reminder of you.

I'm devastated that I never told you how much you meant to me and how much I loved you. You were an important, treasured part of our family, and your loss will leave a great emptiness in us. Rest is peace, my brother.

Forever your sister,
Stephanie

“ Uncle Lou I don't want to believe this still. You were always there for me. You helped me through so much. I grew up with you, and that amazing smile and that laugh i can still hear it :) You had the best laugh ever! You have to be the funniest person i know. So many great unforgettable memories with you. I remember on my 12th birthday you gave me my first Eminem cd, mom was so mad haha but i was obsessed with him I was so happy I gave you the biggest hug and kiss. Christmas mornings was always the best, they were your favorite. I loved waking up and then jumping on you as a kid yelling wake up present time! All of our alien and zombie escape plans!! Making fun of everyone and joking around the table. My little Aria looks just like you we call her our mini Lou or Grandma Lou. It is so hard and hurts so much to think your not gonna be there to see her grow. But i know you will be looking down on us watching. Everything i do i keep thinking "what would Lou do" or "Lou would love that" You will be truly, greatly missed and never forgotten. I am gonna miss you so much. I love you

“ After writing those few words I realized it wasn't enough to say about the man I called "SWEET LOU" . Every time I speak to a friend of his its the same thing I hear from all of them. He would call odd hours of the day or night just to talk about a tv show that cracked him up and he would spend hours on the phone laughing, his laugh was contagious and you had to laugh along with him. My father in-law would always tell us about a story he heard from Louis that would leave us laughing. He had good friends like Billy, Joe, Chris , Derek and Craig that would always seem to make it to my house when Stephanie was cooking and we would all eat and drink and laugh at the stupidest things until there was no more food but we always had a good time. There was many a time I walked in my house late at night after coming home from work and I had to step over Lou because he was staying for a night and eventually it was weeks before he left , at least we had that. We had a lot of great times and I was looking forward to a lot more of them, unfortunately all I will have is just great memories .

“You will lose someone you can’t live without, and your heart will be badly broken, and the bad news is that you never completely get over the loss of your beloved. But this is also the good news. They live forever in your broken heart that doesn’t seal back up. And you come through. It’s like having a broken leg that never heals perfectly—that still hurts when the weather gets cold, but you learn to dance with the limp.”

? Anne Lamott

Lou,

You were always the one who made me laugh the hardest, who taught me history better than anyone else could. I remember I was really upset one day, and I went to you; you told me to never let anyone bring me down like that, that no one was worth me crying over. I remember you always saying how Enola was just like me and I always prided myself in that. You taught me so much, and you encouraged me to be the best I could be no matter what was thrown in front of me. You even let me call you Uncle Louie even though you hated that name. I hope you knew how much I loved you, and how much I love you now.

We all love you.

“Christmas mornings at my house he would always stay with me, Stef and the kids before we went to see mom and dad, killing the JETS for the stupid draft picks they made, swimming at mom and dad’s with our kids, best of all he always had great stories to tell and made us all laugh. We hit it off from the moment Stephanie introduced us and he will always be my brother and be missed dearly.

“ *Louis,
The girls and me will always love you, and as you know , I will be taking care of them the best I can. We will always remember your dark sense of humor and you will always make us laugh/cry.
I hope I did enough for you while you were around and know you did plenty for me and the kids.
My brother, ex husband and father of my children.
I love you.*
