“ I miss you Daddy... It doesn't seem to get any easier as time goes on without you, only harder... I would give anything to have you back.. I love you more then words can say.. I always wonder where you are, and wish I could know that you are safe...

“ Daddy, everyday I look at your photo and ask god why. I constantly want to pick up the phone and talk to you and ask you questions...and I sadly realize I can't...nothing is the same without you...I miss you so much. These past two months have been the worst and nothing seems to get easier. I love you...

“Dad, I miss you so much on Tuesdays when you would bring me an everything bagel with my lemon snapple. I miss running all your errands with you. I miss going to Mas house with you and eating our number 3 and sitting by the water. Ill never forget the day we went to Martin Viette and shopped for decorations and your bought me apple cider and indian corn for my door. We shared popcorn together and you bought me the most perfect pumpkin that I carved that night. I loved walking around CSH with you and shopping with you. I miss calling you on my way to work, at lunch time and then 4 times at night. All of our enlighten conversations we had, I will never forget. Holidays will never be the same and when I put up your Christmas tree, I hope your proud. I hope your proud of everything Im doing and looking down watching me and smiling. Life will never be the same without you. I will never forget our last day together at the hospital, all our talks, watching Oprah with you, not knowing that was the last time I would see your smile and see your blue eyes. We will always have our Montauk trips that I will cherish forever. I love you dearest and Im thankful for every moment we shared together. Love your little Birdie xoxo
