“ *The Famiglietti family,
I am writing to offer you my deepest sympathies in this time of mourning. Since, Maria was a religious woman, I am sharing with you the scripture at Isaiah 26:19 which says, "Those of our people who have died will live again! Their bodies will come back to life. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead." I hope this scripture gives you a measure of comfort in your time of need.*

“ Nonna, Happy Birthday! I hope you're having a great day up in heaven away from this snow storm - I know you don't like the snow. You'll always be my favorite and I hope that today someone treats you to a feast the way you always did for the whole family. I love you!

“ Dear Mommy, Happy Birthday in Heaven! I miss you so much already. You were always so welcoming to any friend we brought home. As soon as someone would walk through the door they were embraced by your loving arms and showered with your smile. You would invite them to the table and say lets have a little something to eat. Little did they know they were treated to a feast. They had no idea how you did it so effortlessly and magically. Your pride came through loud and clear! I love you Mom! Pina

“ I met your mother 12 years ago when "the Ruffini" girls came to visit you (Mark & Maria) in New York. She so graciously opened up her home to us and provided us lunch or shall we say a feast! She was so generous of spirit and made us feel so welcome. Those we love are never forgotten...her loving example lives on in our memory.
