“ Hi Aunt Mary, I knew this day was coming for a long time and now its here. You have left this word and are forever embraced in God's arms with all of our family who went before you. That gives me peace. I am forever grateful you were my aunt and that I spent time with you in my 20's when I came back to NY. I got to know you as an adult after my father passed. I learned so much from you and what a gift you gave me...you know that now. Those Christmases as a child are precious to me now with so much family gone. I used to get tired of hearing "It's a Greek word, or it comes from the Greeks." What I would give to have those precious moments back!! Fly free and high Aunt Mary- I love you- you are with the Angels now. Forever your niece, Alyssa

“ Always very warm and kind, friendly, giving of herself. She was also very encouraging, having taken the time to listen & assist kids with the "oratorical festival" years ago. She made a huge lasting, positive impact in many ways. A benevolent presence. With wishes for peace, S.Pavlidis
