“ My dear cousins, you are all in my thoughts & most especially in my prayers. I thought I would share a story to put a smile on your faces even if for a moment. Before Celene was even born, your Mom & Dad were living on Sunnyside Ave. My Mom decided we would take a long walk & surprise your Mom with a visit because the twins were a few months old & she thought your Mom might want a little break. Back then they didn't always have phones. When your Mom answered the door she asked my Mom to wait a minute. After 10 minutes I was getting impatient & asked my Mom what was taking so long, she said she didn't know. After a while (what seemed like forever to me), your Mom came to the door looking absolutely beautiful...Wenwaited all that time because your. Mom had to put her makeup on... :-). I didn't understand then but when I got old enough, this became one of my favorite stories about your Mom! Aunt Marie you will be missed!!! Love, Nanine

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength to continue on from God's word at Isaiah 26:19 saying: The earth will let those powerless in death come to life. Yes soon you may see Ms. Marie again doing what she loved and you enjoying her again. Please find some help from this and your sweet memories in your difficult time of need.
