“ We are so saddened by Marie's passing.
Cousins share family memories that both warm the soul and put smiles on our faces.
Waiting forever for Aunt Jacqueline to make us a pizza while we literally ran around their restaurant .. Frightening the daylights out of our mothers as we insisted on fishing off Grandpa's pier at the Jersey bungalow. Sharing our beloved dessert recipes.. These are just a sampling of the fond memories I have of you!!
Rest in peace.
Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
Love,
Lucia, John and family

“ Marie was the dearest of friends. Working with her at Washington Primary was a gift. I was blessed to share these times with this intelligent, capable, and caring lady. Our friendship continued through our retirement years. I will especially miss our long talks. May God bring comfort to your beautiful family. They mirror the love and caring you always showed.
With much love,
Kathy Wangenstein

“ Marie, you will live in my heart always, dear friend. May your family weather the rough seas of grief and find the strength to bear the great loss of a very wonderful and special friend. You have and always will mean so much to all those whose life you have touched with light and caring. For all of us, this is the most difficult part of our life journey. Sending all of you love, prayers and blessed thoughts.
