“ REMEMBERING MOMENTS WITH GRANDMA MARIE:

As I sit drinking my soothing hot coffee, I think of the warm, soothing bond God granted Grandma Marie and me.

Each day Grandma Marie showed kindergarten kindness in the classroom to each student, teacher, and myself. Whether a hug, smile or strong direction of wisdom, it was a beautiful blessing.

Our work environment became more personal than I imagined. From the love inside the classroom, my heart experienced Grandma Marie's unselfish love and caring spirit. She would ask, "How's your husband? How're your sons?" She would take the time to enjoy family pictures near my work area very engrossed. Grandma Marie asked daily, "How are you, Mrs. Watkins?" She then shared memories of her family as we shared many beautiful memories often.

I was blessed to know her granddaughter, Melissa, as a Franklin Park Elementary School kindergartener. As a student, Melissa was soft-spoken, always with a smile. Melissa was caring and respectful and always ensured her grandmother was okay. Grandma Marie enjoyed and loved her family!! My grandmother of godly character also raised me, so thank you, Grandma Marie, for that love only grandmas can give.

Grandma Marie loved God! We had beautiful conversations as her smile would lighten with illumination full of joy. Our relationship became closer and more wonderful! Her wisdom, love & caring spirit was incredible.

The kindergartners, including teachers Mrs. Jenkinson & Mrs. Agnello, enjoyed Grandma Marie. She was a wonderful foster grandparent.

Grandma Marie was very excited when it was time to visit family in New York. Grandma Marie visited Haiti and shared many stories about her homeland. I was delighted to receive a beautiful gift from Haiti shaped like a pineapple with the words carved "JESUS IS MY BOSS" with the word "HAITI" at the bottom. I have it as a part of my living room décor and think of Grandma Marie!

I'm grateful to God for the beautiful bond created in the classroom. The friendship, love, and caring spirit Grandma Marie shared will forever be a blessing. There were days she wasn't feeling her best, but she persevered. She told me it was time to stop working and move with her family to New York. I'm grateful that God allowed me to stay in touch until the end. That's a gift I will always cherish.

“ Mrs. Wilmore was a loving Grandma at Franklin Park Elementary School in Fort Myers, Florida! She loved our students and truly enjoyed sharing stories about vacations with her loving family. She returned from one of her trips to Haiti with a hand-crafted wooden globe and map of Haiti just for me! I'll love her forever! Thank you for sharing her with me and my students! ❤️ ~Tamara Joy Hunter

“ My grandma was a loving person with a big heart. She truly loved her family. She always spoke about her mother how she was the best mother that would ever live. I am happy you are now wrapped in her arms but jealous that I can't hug you. I'll love you forever with all my heart. ❤️

As we are crying and grieving for this loss, let all of us remember these simple yet powerful words she always claimed and believed in "Dis tout a Jesus." Tout naît, tout vit et tout s'en va

*La Mort ne surprend point le sage;
Il est toujours prêt à partir,
S'étant su lui-même avertir
Du temps où l'on se doit résoudre à ce passage.
Ce temps, hélas ! embrasse tous les temps :
Qu'on le partage en jours, en heures, en moments,
Il n'en est point qu'il ne comprenne
Dans le fatal tribut ; tous sont de son domaine.
Ma chère tante Marie Jeanne Jean Pierre Wilmore, dite tante Irénée, sur ce sol rempli de pierres,
Elle a ouvert les
yeux à la lumière , vient de fermer pour toujours ses paupières.
Malgré sa beauté, ses vertus, sa grandeur d'âme,
La Mort ravit tout sans pudeur.
Quand tout faillit en toi ,
Plus de sentiment, plus de goût, plus d'ouïe,
Toute chose semble pour toi, être évanouie.
Tu as combattu 84 années de bon combat.
Tu as excellé dans l'utile et dans l'agréable.
Tu as achevé la course.
Que les Portes du Paradis te soient ouvertes et légères !!!*
