“ dear mom hope your resting comfortably. believe me you and jeannie are in a place that has to be beautiful, no heartache, no sickness, only peace and joy. nothing is the same anymore, but the memories will always be there

“ she will truly be missed, as I always considered her my second mother. She is in heaven now with my beloved wife jean and together they are looking down at us watching over us and hopefully the day will come when we will all be together again, sharing all the good times we had, all the love we shared and I truly believe that day will come. watch over jeannie mom, till I get up there, because with you I know she is in good hands

“ The DeCristofaro family

I am so sorry to hear of Mary's passing. Please accept my condolences. It saddens me that she had to experience the death of her daughter, my friend Jean.

She was a wonderful person and I enjoyed all the lunches we had at her house and her company. She was just wonderful and will be missed not only by her family but all who knew and loved her.

Rest in peace Mary..

Marie (Jean's friend)
