“ We were so sorry to hear about Aunt Mary's passing. I remember when I was a teenager, Aunt Mary and Uncle Dick took me into New York City to see the Metropolitan Museum of Art and another time, took me to see Handel's Messiah performed at Lincoln center. Aunt Mary was so patient in explaining everything to me and made sure that I enjoyed everything as much as they did. They even took me to a fancy Italian restaurant but, being a teenager and not so adventurous in my culinary tastes, I ordered roasted chicken. Even then, they didn't make me feel that I disappointed them. The price for all this? Aunt Mary had me vacuum the house beforehand and I enjoyed every minute of it. It was a recurring joke between us for years. I am sad that she is gone but happy she is with the love of her life again.
