“ I am so very sad 😞 and sorry to have learned that my Daddy's oldest sister, my Aunt Mary Lou has passed... I had not seen her since the passing of my Nanny Rhoda... When I was a little girl and my Aunt Mary Lou and her family would come to Nanny's for a visit I loved listening to her speak of her life here in Martin as a little girl... She was such a smart lady that I could listen to her for hours... To my 1st cousins Vanessa, William and Cynthia I cannot tell you how my heart hurts for you all and I cannot imagine 💔 the hurt and pain 😞 you all are feeling... To your families you all are in my prayers and thoughts as you go through this journey.... I love you all Mary Elizabeth ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏

“ Mary Lou was my first cousin. I grew up enjoying her company. She was the first born of my much loved Aunt Rhoda Click, my Mother, Georgia Salisbury Davis’s sister. I am so sorry for this loss. Mary Lou is the last of Aunt Rhoda’s Beautiful girls and son. It seems quite impossible for that family to have all left here for heaven. I will long remember Mary Lou’s visits to Martin from New York. She always came to our house for a visit or we went to Aunt Rhoda and Uncle Jobie’s house. My deepest sympathy for this lost. Now, she is with family that has passed on. I know she must be enjoying the welcoming committee. The loss of the 3 sisters in such a short time has been most saddening. May God bless all of them and Mary Lou’s family.
