

Mary Jane Provenzano

July 15, 1934 - February 10, 2017

Cemetery Details

Calvary Cemetery

4902 Laurel Hill Boulevard
Flushing, NY

Previous Events

Funeral Service

FEB 15. 11:00 AM (ET)

Calvary Cemetery
4902 Laurel Hill Boulevard
Flushing, NY

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Jane Provenzano

November 27, 2022 at 05:33 PM

“ I am so sorry to learn of Mary Jane's passing! She and my mother, Tina, were childhood friends and remained close until my mother's death 10 years ago. Mary Jane was my mother's maid of honor at her wedding, my brother's godmother and my sponsor when I made my confirmation. She was always considered part of our family. For a time she even lived in the same apartment building so that she could be closer to us.

After my mother died, Mary Jane and I stayed in touch but I hadn't heard from her in some time. When I tried to call her several months ago, her phone was disconnected and I didn't know how to find her. An online search sadly led me here.

If you get this message, know that I think of her often. She was tremendously kind to me when I was a child. Whenever she went on vacation, she always brought back a doll for me from wherever her travels took her. When she came to visit, she'd bring me books from William Morrow. When I got older we sometimes had dinner or saw a show. I even talked her into an opera once.

Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss. I wish I had known sooner. If you'd like to contact me, I can be reached at nan11@rcn.com.

Nancy

Nancy - April 16, 2017 at 02:13 AM

YO

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Death is one of the most difficult things to cope with. The bible describes God as a God of comfort. May your family be comforted by God's promise of the resurrection. (John 6:40) which assures us that we will see our loved ones again.

Young - February 13, 2017 at 01:37 PM