“ My dearest friend ,

How I miss you...words cannot explain my loss when I think ,feel, or speak about you. My beautiful friend..you gave me back my heart that I once thought was gone. I lost a brother,and gained a beautiful best friend. The moments I spent with you changed my life..you showed me how to trust, love and run with the wind. It's not what you have,but what you do with the beautiful time we are given. I never thought I could love someone again like you .. You changed my life, you changed my sunsets,you changed my entire world..I miss you so much and my heart is breaking without you..I am always looking for signs..I love and miss you... My beautiful friend

“ My beautiful friend...what can the heart say when you lose a part of you. You touched my heart in so many ways. You were, and always will be my best friend. No one will make me laugh like you did. No one will ever take your place as a protector and friend. you were always there for me, and some days I find so hard to grasp that you are not here with me. you showed me so much love and always made me feel at home..in your home. You are, and always will be beautiful in my eyes. You gave me gifts for the days I shared with you THAT i WILL NEVER FORGET! You my beautiful friend gave this special gift of friendship and it was unconditional. I think of you every day...I cry all the time because I miss you. You will always be my BOO BOO...and I will forever love you. You touched my heart like no other ever has, and I cherish every moment. Watch over us, keep us with you, and never forget to help us catch the biggest fish ever. I know you are here with us...I feel your spirit. I love you Mike. You are the light in my life, and thank you for all that you have brought to my life. Miss you brother! Your monkey! xoxoxo
