“ Condolences to the Zahn family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ I've known Mike since I was 8 or 9 years old. He was like a big brother to me. I remember him waiting in the living room many times for my sister to finish getting ready for their dates. Instead of ignoring me or just watching the TV, he was so sweet and would tell me all sorts of stories. I think some he just made up off the top of his head but I remember him describing a creepy Twilight Zone episode. I realized that quite a few years later when I saw it on TV. I thought story time with Mike was the greatest thing ever! I couldn't wait for his visits because I truly loved our special time together. I will always cherish all of my happy memories of him. I wish he had more time so he would have been able to tell his grandchildren stories too. He was a true gentleman that was loved very much and will be missed by all.

Kris, Mike and Jen, you are lucky to have had such a special man for a father.

*Love,
Aunt Sue*

“ To all of Mike's family, may you find peace and comfort in your heart and the memories he left you. I worked with Mike for over thirty years at Entenmann's Bakery, we shared much including the sometimes terrible heat that came from the ovens that few could stand for an hour, but he stayed for so many years for his family, when other's would have been gone.

Mike often showed me pictures of his children and when he showed me his wife he would always say the same thing, " this is my beautiful wife ". I can say as his friend who saw his face and heard his words, he never stopped loving her.

Mike brought his son Michael to my house many years ago to pick up some Parakeets and a cage when the birds and our cat were not getting along. We both had a love of Tropical Fish and he guided me in many things that were so helpful.

Mike knew I was a coin collector and on two separate occasions gave me Indian Head Pennies that he said were in the Cash-register at his Mom & Dad's Deli that was so much a part of his early life.

He proudly served this country in the Army, in a Tank division, I'd make him laugh when I would reply, " Tanks-a-lot "

Along with his family he so loved that 1972 Chevelle SS Malibu. He told all who would listen about how he worked at the Chevy Plant where the car was made and that on his day off he went to the factory and followed the car down the Production line as it was made and how workers he knew would put extra welds and other special things in the car as it was born. It was during a layoff at that Plant that he came to work at the Bakery. He was a car man, not a cake man, but he did what he had to do.

I only have one regret, he invited me several times to vacation in upstate New York at his families Woodstock home, I never made it.

I talked with him several times in the past years over the phone from here in Florida to Huntington.

He was a good man and my friend, I will miss him dearly.

Goodnight Michael

“ We said good-bye to a wonderful man this past Friday, my father-in-law, Michael Zahn. I am proud to say I knew him almost 20 years, and have many fond memories of him. I remember a very cordial man, welcoming me into his house for the first time. I remember the smile that ran across his face when I asked his permission to marry his daughter, Kristina (a moment he probably both feared and dreamt of at the same time). I remember him always offering me whatever he had, every time I came to his house, even when sometimes there wasn't much to give. Everyone who knew him liked this gentle man. He would fondly talk of his friends at Entenmann's, particularly his friend Jerry. He would talk so much of Jerry, I thought he was a relative from Germany.

But looking through all the pictures of Michael this week, I came to realize what truly gave him happiness in his heart: family. Every picture I saw of him where he was smiling, he was surrounded by family. He kept pictures of his parents, his sister, his wife, and his grandchildren close to his heart, in his wallet until the day he passed. Despite all the joy that these people would bring him, it was his love for his children that would go unmatched. He raised 2 beautiful, confident daughters, Kristina and Jennifer, who would grow to be very determined individuals that know what they want in life and excel in their professional careers. Both of them reflect his love every time they smile. He also lived with his son, and best friend, Michael. Knowing from my own experience of the special bond a man has with his son, I know he came home everyday very happy living his life, with his best buddy, Mike. They shared many meals and laughs, as well as a love for sports. They all looked out for their father, as he looked out for them. The countless times you made each other smile, the endless number of memories, the love.. will all be carried on when you, or anyone else, remembers or thinks of Mike.

I am truly glad I got to know this man. I am forever thankful for him, and I will miss him, as we all will. It's never easy saying good-bye like this, but we can all feel blessed for knowing such a man, and sleep well knowing he lived a good life and he'll be with all of us, filling our hearts with his love, forever.
