“ "Aunt Donna - I have a question for you" was usually how you greeted me, followed immediately by a hug and kiss hello. And the question was never easy, because you were always thinking about how to get to the next mountain you wanted to climb.

Darling Michelle, you were a bright shining star in my life. You were loved and I will miss you.

“ Dearest Michelle,
A couple of years ago, after your father passed away, you had told me that when it was your turn, you “didn’t want tears”. I believe my response was something like, don’t count on it because I’m Irish and there always will be tears. I do remember us laughing about it.

We never expected you to be taken to heaven so soon, but I am trying to do as you asked. Needless to say it’s very hard, but I’ve found a trick that seems to help sometimes. Each time I start to get teary eyed, I think back to a memory, and you make me smile instead. See, even while in heaven, you are still bringing smiles to other people’s faces.

There have been so many memories, and I’d like to share one of my favorite memories. It was when you were a toddler and we did a group trip to Hershey Park. Even though most of your activities were in the stroller, you were so determined not to miss anything! We tried repeatedly to get you to take a nap – but had no luck.... and we were there all day until the Park closed. You were still wide awake as we were exiting the park, but at the exact moment that you went thru the exit turnstile area you sat back and fell asleep instantly. We couldn’t believe it, and it still makes me smile.

Michelle, you have always held a special place in my heart, and you will continue to do so forever. Thank you for being in my life cousin, and for being a ‘niece of my heart’. I will miss you dearly.

Love Always ‘Aunt’ Joan

“ A friend to my two grand daughters, Melanie and Tiffany. Tiffany is deaf. Michelle spent time with her communicating and just being a friend. She visited my home on numerous occasions. Always respectful, Always kind, Always caring. Sweet, Sweet, Angel Girl. My heart is sad that she has left us. God has called her home. Now she is an Angel in heaven. Love and kindness always. Michelle, rest in heavenly peace. We love you.

“ Dear Michelle you will be greatly missed. Always the "heart" of our family parties. I am so grateful to have seen you grow up into such a confident, loving and selfless young woman. We have many happy memories of our vacation adventures when you and Peter and Alison and Andrew were little. Rest in peace and try not to stir up too much commotion with all the relatives in heaven. Love "Aunt" Pat

“ My niece, Michelle was unique, special, caring and loving. She added joy to our lives. She was the real deal. She gave me a Christmas teddy bear that I will always cherish. She was an inspiration to me. She taught me to never give up and enjoy life and the people in your life. She lives on in many cherished memories and in our hearts. The world was a better place with her in it. She will always be loved and remembered fondly.
