“ Muriel's beautiful and loving soul was so easy to see and feel. It was in her eyes, her smile, and her quick chuckle when she found something funny. She was what every teacher should strive to be - totally devoted to her students. They immediately sensed her love and belief in their capabilities and they responded by surpassing all expectations - including their own. I was blessed to be in a very special department with her for so many years and she led through her example. To know Muriel was to love her and I will deeply miss my most special colleague and friend. My deepest and heartfelt sympathies to Liam and the entire family.
