“ Zeze taught us that every day was a gift from God to be treasured and cherished moment by moment with family and friends. Even with the struggle she faced, she faced it with unfaltering faith, courage, hope and love. She lifted everyone up around her. Zeze was a beacon of faith and strength. She celebrated life to the fullest. She knew the true meaning of life. The best and most beautiful thing in the world cannot be seen or touched they must be felt with the heart. That is how Zeze lived her life. Always showing that she cared. You always felt the warmth and love of her friendship, the kindness from her heart. The morning would always start with giant smile, asking about our family. Bringing bread, asking how you were. We can only aspire to be as strong kind and loving as Zeze. Her love for God was magnified through her love for her family and all of those around her. Nothing rooted in love is every lost. We were all truly blessed to have had as many years with her as we did. They are to be cherished by all of us and although she is no longer here physically she will never be far from our hearts. She touched us, her life was full of so much godness and blessing. She was an ANGEL on this earth. Now she is home with God in her eternal resting place. May her family always feel the warmth of her love shine down on them from Heaven and always feel her presence in their hearts. Love Michele

*Zeze
One I met in 1982/1983*

Beautiful young lady

One who was kind, who was a true leader, who was attentive, who always wore a smile. She seemed to imbibe a character that was many many times her age.

At that time I was about her age, running a service which had her as the face of her household.

She must be sorely missed.

My condolences to the family

May Zeze's soul rest in perfect peace

“ About two weeks ago I finally found what it was that I wanted to say to Zeze, It finally came to me after all of the years that we know each other. I told her that i wished that i had met her when I was in my twenties, she smiled. I told her that I could have learned from her strength, courage and faith. She had amazing strength, faith beyond anything i had seen in anyone that I know and she loved, loved, loved her family and friends. She is at Peace. Prayers, Peace and Love, Ellen
