

Patricia M. Lievendag

April 2, 1935 - October 27, 2020

Patricia May Lievendag (McBride) 1935 - 2020

Patricia (Pat or Patty) Lievendag of Greenlawn NY, born April 2nd 1935, passed away October 27th after a long health battle. She died peacefully at home with her husband Ronald Lievendag and her dog Charlie by her side. They were both the loves of her life.

Patricia was born in NYC and grew up in Bayside Queens with her parents David and Frances McBride and her beloved sister Joyce. Pat headed off to Stetson University, Deland, FL in 1954 to pursue her dreams of becoming a professional singer. She sang and performed most of her life including in the chorus at Radio City Music Hall, numerous theater productions, countless weddings and church services. She held numerous jobs over the years, her favorite the youth choir director at the First Presbyterian Church of Greenlawn, NY.

Pat is survived by her husband Ronald E. Lievendag of 61 years, their three children and spouses, Ronald and Kim Lievendag, Holly and Ralph Giordano, Scott and Jessica Lievendag, 6 grandchildren and her canine companion Charlie. A memorial service to Honor Patricia will be held at a later date.
