“ Lovely gentleman... I'm a Eucharistic minister and Would always enjoy a short conversation with him.. he was so brave and would refer to his bandages As war wounds. We saw him at Turtles with his Two daughters and he was beaming and proud of them . May he Rest In Peace.

“ My husband and I attend 4 pm Mass at St. Michael's and your Mom & Dad sat a few pews in front of us. It was only after your Mom passed that we got talking. He was just the nicest man and we have been so concerned as we knew he wasn't well. I was a greeter one Saturday about 3-4 weeks ago and he pulled up and gave me several envelopes for past weeks to put in the collection and asked me to bring him out a bulletin. I just addressed an envelope to him with this weeks bulletin and then sat down to read it myself when I noted the Sanctuary Lamp was lit in his memory. Denis and I are so sorry for your loss and we shall miss seeing him. He called me "Brooklyn" because that is where we came from & where he went to high school. Remember meeting him here at Turtles Pub on Siesta Key with you guys in the last year. We are so sorry for your loss.
