“ I always enjoyed seeing Richard and Doreen and extended family together on Friendsgiving every year. The first time they both made me feel so welcomed. It was an absolute pleasure getting to know them better through the years. What a horrible thing to happen to a wonderful family. I'm deeply sorry.

My brother Ritchie had a big heart. He was always there if I needed him. His heart is not judged by how much he loved but by how much he was loved by others and he was very loved by others. To the best brother till I see you again.
