“ I have always envied the James clan with being such a large close family. They always stay strong together. Reminds you of a strong chain links, assuming that what they represent was little, but to the outside person, they were always so much more. But in reality they all gave us all so much. Like God says he takes little and makes much. Richard the youngest of the link taken in his prime. Will be truly missed. Scott was the such an good father, husband and friend. Scott will always be remembered as encouraging, creative, supportive, strong ,and always selfless part of the James family legacy. My heart is with you all.

Love,

“ Some seek to be stars, political stars, movie stars, pop stars. But Scott sought to be a great family man which is more valuable than any gold, silver, or anything money can buy. In this he is successful.
