“ Dear Corrine, Karen, Lisa and family, I was very saddened to hear about the lost of your father. I will always remember his smile and our adventures to the beach and the pranks he played on us while we were growing up. He was a wonderful neighbor and a good man, he will never be forgotten.

“ One of my earliest memories is Sunday dinner at Grandma's in Astoria where the Kaltschmidt brothers and their families (my brother and I were the only grandchildren at the time) sat around a huge table while my grandmother hauled huge platters of ham out of the kitchen. When I think of that table, I can still hear Uncle Richard laughing. I will always remember him with his head thrown back laughing.

“ So many happy memories over my lifetime include this gentle man's voice and face! His warm smile was equally matched by the smile in those crinkly eyes. So deeply sorry our family has lost such genuine sweetness. Heartfelt condolences to all of you...
