“ Hi Val, Tom and James,

I remember your Ron in the fondest way. He made a history of introductions to many of us where our paths would ultimately cross.

From my early days in the printing biz where he introduced me to two companies that I would actually join.

Tom and I restored my fire ravaged 66 convertible Impala at his Huntington shop (which Ron critiqued) and James tried his hand in the print biz as well.

Ronnie (what we always called him) was sharp man, witty, and was always on his game. He told me countless stories about the Lindenmeyr management and how he would drop a pad on his managers desk if his commission was off by a decimal point and even how the two owners (Leonard and Alfred??) converted to become Episcopalian. We surely had our opinions about that!

I was saddened to read this, but I have to say, he taught me a lot, surely contributed to my success in a big way, and paved paths for many in this industry. I would think about him time to time...and now a legend has passed.

God bless the Bohlen family during this difficult time.
