Rose lived across the street from me on Myrtle Avenue in Brooklyn and was my mother, Mary Dooley's best friend. When my mom died, we lost touch with Rose and her sons. My sincere condolences to the family. She was a wonderful woman. Would love to hear from the sons.

*Love, Pat Lorenz, nee Dooley

“ I have so many memories of my sweet grandmother. From when I was young going to Kmart or having lunch outside to playing bingo with “the seniors”. She came with me to pick my wedding dress and was my friend when I needed an ear to listen. I will forever be a different person because she was in my life and I’ll miss her dearly. I love you grandma. Thank you for being you.
