“ Today I read Sandra's obit in Newsday. I am Dianne Gunnigle Burkhardt, daughter of Sandra's cousin Doris Pasta Gunnigle. I contacted my brother Kevin and cousin Jerry. We are all so sorry to hear of her passing but remember with a smile the wonderful family the Pasta's were, their families, and the childhood we all shared in one way or another. The parties at my grandparents home in Queens Village, Frank and Ann Pasta, with Uncle Jim, Uncle John, Aunt Amelia and Aunt Kate and families. My kiss on Easter Sunday with Tommy Reda, that I still have a photo of, and Uncle Jim laying eggs in the chair in the corner. LOL The last time I saw Eileen, Sandra and Carol was at my Dad's funeral in 1995. My mother Doris loved her cousins, then was diagnosed with Alzheimers two months later. We all have been through this wonderful family time with love, tears, laughter and concern. We are truly blessed to have been a part of our shared heritage and wish you all the very best. Hugs and kisses, Dianne, Kevin, Jerry Cristando and families.
