

Scott Robert Cento

March 16, 1978 - July 9, 2020

On Thursday, July 9, 2020, Scott Cento, loving son to Susan Cento and the late Robert Cento, loving brother to Amanda and Trent Narra, and uncle to Paisley, Abigail and Kyleigh Narra, passed away at age 42.

Scott was born and raised in Huntington, NY. He graduated from Walt Whitman High School and went on to receive his bachelor degree from SUNY Cortland and his masters degree from Dowling College. Scott was a dedicated and well liked special education teacher for the NYC Board of Education. During his tenure he lived in Long Beach and Brooklyn. Scott taught for about 15 years at William McKinley Junior High School and spent a year teaching in Malaysia.

Scott had a passion for traveling, he loved the beach and spending time with his friends and family. He was also an avid sports lover. Scott was known for his sense of humor, positive words and outgoing personality. He will be remembered for his big hugs and smile. Scott will truly be missed by all that knew him.

“ The McKinley family is truly heartbroken. Scott was an excellent teacher and colleague. He was always willing to share helpful advice. Scott was admired by hi students. In short, Scott was a master teacher.

May he rest In peace. May memories of him bring comfort to his family and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your family’s loss. Scott and I have worked together at McKinley for the last 14 years. Scott was kind, funny, witty and caring. If you ever needed anything Scott would often go out of his way to try to help. Some of my favorite memories of Scott are of us in the hallway cracking up over something silly that may have happened in class or in a meeting that day. We shared the same classes the last few years and sometimes Scott would have to come in during my class to reprimand the students. He would use his teacher voice, which had a serious, calm tone to it, but was laced with dry humor. I would always have to walk out of the room before I was overtaken by laughter. Scott has truly left a gaping hole in our McKinley family. He will be missed. I hope you may all find peace and comfort in knowing just how many lives Scott has touched. May his memory be eternal. 🙏❤️

“ I am truly sorry for the great loss of Scott. I am sorry I can not make it to his wake. I knew Scott for the 15 years he worked at McKinley. We co-taught a math class in addition to worked together in many ways. Scott was always there for everybody, he had his passions and being there for people and children was one of them. There are many great stories about Scott at McKinley, he as a caring, passionate, loving, warm, attentive, person. We will all miss him. I hope you have comfort in knowing his touch will grow exponentially in the children he worked with and helped. May he rest in peace.
Sincerely, Naomi Lehrer

Hi Amanda. I was friends with Scott back in middle school, I grew up off Melville road and would come swimming at your house during the summer. I am shocked at the news. Please know I will pray for you and your family.
