

Theresa Marie Sposato

October 19, 1940 - September 21, 2024

Theresa Marie Sposato, of Surf City, NC formerly of Huntington Station, NY., sadly passed away September 21, 2024 at the age of 84. Theresa moved from St. Louis, MO to Huntington Station, NY in 1963 and she never liked the beach. She knew her sports, loved throwing parties, lived for her exercise group and was a fierce card player. She was the co-owner / cook for the Bay Delicatessen Halesite, NY she cooked a mean egg sandwich. Beloved wife of Leonard for 61 years. Loving mother of Kim (David) Brown and Lisa Sposato. Nothing in her life mattered more to her than her two granddaughters, Morgan and Haley.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made in Theresa's memory to:

“ We can never forget Theresa’s infectious laugh. We gathered together each month for our three table bridge games. Theresa was a wonderful card player and hostess, always fun to be with. Wining at cards was never the purpose of the evening. Being with friends and sharing family news was. Pete and I miss those good times. Sincerely, Marilyn and Pete Pandorf.

“ Theresa Sposato, What a gem! A very cool, kind, and Awesome ham & egg & breakfast sammich assembler, maker! Bay Deli rice pudding was voted best by all marina workers local Baymen and the T.O.H. workforce! alongside every other thing on the menu. She will be remembered by all who came to THE BAY DELI for that favorite something to satisfy their hunger. All the family members worked there and some became family who went there. Rest Peacefully Rest Theresa and we will never forget you, you made a difference in the lives of many.
