“ Tommy was always such a quiet but powerful soul. He was reserved yet outspoken, he was silent yet bold. His world was quiet to those that saw him, yet he was brilliantly a man that possessed such a grand and deep heart.

We had a good streak of stubbornness in common, along with our more reserved demeanors.

I miss you Tommy just talking about you... Our loss temporarily on this Earth, and Heavens gain!

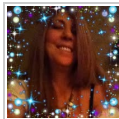

Love you, and see you soon.

Your cousin always,

Marie

Hey Tommy, where did you go? I've been trying to get in touch with you for years, but now I know. I'm in complete shock! Since the beginning in the Fairchild Republic days, I thought Tommy was one of the best people that I've ever met in my professional career. Quiet as he was, I had a way to make him talk and laugh and feel at home whenever we got together. Tommy, Tony Policastro, Pete Cavanaugh, and I were a team and had some great times together!!! I hope his passing was without pain and he's definitely sorely missed! I hope the rest of his family is doing well; Rose, Debbie, and Victor. It's been 10 years since Tommy has left this earth. My sincere condolences to his family.
