“ Daddy, Even though I'm the oldest, I can still clearly remember being your little girl. You are a kind & loving Dad. You took me to church, went fishing with me & Mom, made igloos of snow for Donna & I to play in. You set an example of how precious it is to spend time with your family & how important they are. You & Judy gave me a group of siblings I am so proud of. And you waited for Jimmy to come before you left us all.
I love you,Dad. You'll always be with me. Debra

“ *I remember one day Tommy and I went fishing on the Capt. Bob out of Mattituck NY. When we got off the boat Tommy says to me " Joe can we stop at Lewins Farms I love their homemade pies and I can get some fresh vegetables" I told Tommy no problem.
It was a hot day so I waited in the car with the a/c on while Tom went in Lewins to shop.
I'll never forget, about 20 minutes later Tom comes out with a shopping cart loaded with stuff and a huge smile on his face saying he got his pie and fresh beets and so on.
It was like he just cleaned out the candy store.
That was a great for both of us and I will never forget it. I will always remember and truly miss my buddy Tom.
