“ Grandpa, I am going to miss you sooo much, i cant beleive your gone now it still isnt setting in. You have always been such an important person in my life you have always been there for us & i will always love and thank you for that. I will miss hearing your jokes at family gatherings you always knew how to make everyone laugh i will miss playing cards with you & miss hearing your voice. I will cherish our phonecalls especially in recent years, we both were having frustrations with our health & you understood me & i understood you. Im sorry that you had to go through something so terrible grandpa i wish it never happened. Knowing your in heaven now with ama brings peace to my heart but still makes me feel so sad because i wont be seeing you. I want you to know i love & miss you so much. One day we will all be together again in heaven, until then i will keep you in my heart. I love you grandpa xOx Love Always Michelle
